

Do you like Science Fiction & Fantasy?

Do you write or draw sf&f?

Read science fiction and fantasy?

Do you want to pad your resume?

Create worlds for your stories and scenarios?

Need a fun way to get volunteer hours?

Join LTUE and help with the longest-running, largest student-organized science fiction and fantasy symposium in the US. Meet professional writers and artists. Learn how to break into the business yourself. Learn real-life skills that will help you after graduation!

Elang 351R credit is available for working on the symposium. You can also gain community service hours.
